VOL 4, NO 28.1

PLYMOUTH, INDIANA, THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 1859.

EWEOLE NO 184

Business Cards.

F THE STATE OF INDIAN BRANCH AT PLYMOUTH, IND.

E. S. ORGAN, Pres. | H. + ARLY, Cashier MASTERN EXCHANGE, Drafts on Unein nati and Chicago, Gold and Silver, Uncurrent Money and Land Warrants

BOUGHT AND SOLD Deposits Received and Money Loaned.
TExchange on Europe bought and sold.
TAttention given to Collections, and General Banking Business Transacted. June 23, 1858. 31

WHEN WILL WONDERS CEASE! IN PLYMOUTH?

H. B. DICKSON J. C LEONARD H. B. DICKSON & CO.

HARDWAR, of every description, also, Stoves, Tin, Steet-Iron and Copper Ware PLYMOUTH, IND.

Edwards & Vanvalkenburgh, Boots b hoes,

PLYMOUTH IND.

CORBIN & PACKARD Western Collection Agents. PLYMOUTH, IND.

ARCULARIAS, BONNETT, & CO., N Y City; JOHN LIVINGSTON. Town, SMITH & SHELDEN, Detroit, Mich .: SECOR, BERDAN & CO. Totedo, Ohio; M H Norron & co, Chicago, Ill; Hon C A Stacy, Teeumsch, Mich; Hon THOS S STANFIELD, South Bend, Ind

REEVE & CAPRON ATTORNEYS & NOTARIES Plymouth, Marshall County, Ind.,

Practice in Marshall and adjoining counties REFER TO Babcock & Co., Phelps, Dodge & Co., N. Y. Cooley, Farwell & Co., Gould & Bro. Chicago. Loudon & Co., Philad., Graff, Bennett & Co., Pitts. Hon. A. L. Osborne, Circ't. Judge, Laporte, Ind.

LAW NOTICE.

STANFIELD & JOHNSON. T. S. STANFIELD, of South Bend, Ind., and A Jourson, of Plymouth Indiana, have associated themselves together for the practice of Law, in all the Courts of Marshall County Mr Scanfield will personally assist in the management of all litigated business Office in Pershing's block. [n13v4]

OSBORNE & PHILLIPS OFFICE-First door north of Boyd's Furniture PLYMOUTH, IND.

JOHN M. SHOEMAKER, DEALER IN Plymouth, Ind.,

TEEP? constantly on hand Clocks, Watches. BREAST PINS, EAR RINGS, FINGER RINGS, LOCKETS, &c., &c. IPClocks, Watches, &c., repaired in the best jan 7 '58 7-tf. manner possible.

PARKER HOUSE,

H. M. HOPKINS,.....PROPRIETOR. LAPORTE, INDIANA.

V. W. AXTELL, CLERK.

J. H. CASE,

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE

CHAVING, HAIRDRESSING AND Shampooing Saloon,

On Michigan st, opposite Pierce's Clothing store where the subscriber is ready at all times, during in this vicinity; and he hopes that hereafter, by a strict attention to business, to merit a liberal pattronage from the citizens generally ALFRED BILLOWS.

J. J. VINALL,

TOMEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN.—Particular attention paid to Obstetric Practice, and Chronic diseas of Women, and diseases of Children. Office over C. Palmer's store, corner Michigan and Laporte streets, where he can be consulted

DR. A. C. BORTON,

SURGEON DENTIST. Having the advantage of a Job Press and the pared at all times. (Mondays and Fuesday latest styles of Job Type, we can and will give TAS located in Plymouth where he will be pres excepted) to perform all operations pertaining to the Dental profession. Special attention given to cleansing the teeth. Diseases of the mouth treated with success.
Satisfaction will be given to all who may favor him with a call. Rooms in Pershing's building, up stairs—c.1-fort ball door, may 20-26tf.

W. C. Edwards) Capt. O. Baily,

"The Old Folks at Home." W. C. EWARDS has returned to the Edwards ished. It is commodious and comfortable in all and all others, will find every desirable accommo-

In connection with this house is a large and con-

HARTFORD Fire Insurance Company

HARTFORD, CONNECTICUT. MAPITAL, $500.000; surplus 298,642 23; as-/ sets January 1, 1859, 798,632 23. Incorpokinds, and will sell as cheap as rated 1810. H Henrington, President; T C Al the cheapest. Call and exam- lyn, Secretary; D Alexander, General agent fo ness wells up in the heart, and flooding its gently to the engine-house. One of the tor in a voice that gave some intimation of the West, Columbus, Ohio. Policies issued by HORACE CORBIN, Agent, Plymouth, Ind.

> M. D. M. D.

WOULD respectfully announce to the public that they have this day associated themselves together in the practice of

MEDICINE & SURGERY

H. CORBIN bright star of a joyful Remembrance. rience, together with a thorough medical education. Attorneys and Counsellors at Law, will attend to all calls with promptness and fidelity. Particular attention paid to SURGERY and CHRONIC DISEASES. OFFICE-Second door west of Pierce's Cioth-Plymouth, March 15, 1859-16tf tristed to him by the citizens of Stark, Marshall, Fulton and Pulaski Counties. INS, Recorder of Stark County established a and they have a large amount of Land, and sever-

> The Undersigned, RESIDING AT

KNOX. STARK COUNTY, IND.,

C. H. REEVE,

of Peoria III., Cash Assetts......$300,000 rope, at the end of which was a block.
Policies issued at the lowest possible rates. Office through which ran the line by which we on LaPorte street Plymouth Ind.

Fresh Arrival! ment in Plymouth, a large assortment of

Boots & Shoes

24 EDWARDS & VANVALKENBURGH. BENDER HOUSE J. D. CLARK, - - - Proprietor,

KNOX, STARK CO. IND., satisfaction to all those who may give kim a call .-Persons visiting Knox call and see for yourselves. Colly was very quiet; and when I waived

& C. R. R. TO TAKE EFFECT APRIL 28, AT 8 40 O'CLOCK A M 5 00 do do Stillwell 9 13 do 5 25 do do Kankakee do Walkerton 5 25 do do Kankakee 9 35 do curred; but as we drew nearer and nearer myself, and clutching him fast, I shouted a dish of smoking chops. de Walkerton jul8 33ly do Stillwell 6 10 do do Tyner do Plank Road 625 do do Clark's

$1,000 WANTED!!

office, on Michigan street, where he will gir hereby notified that I need the money, as I cannot about him, so that he might grow used to that edventure. prompt ... ntion to all claims entrusted to him fo pay my debts until my dues are paid, and not wish-'tas Justice of the peace or in high inv to subject any man to costs, yet if this call is Plymouth, Ind Sept. 9, 1858-42tf. not responded to immediately, I am compelled to adopt means more effectual. H. PIERCE. Plymouth dee 7, '59 11tf

Pike's Peak Gold Mine! OCATED THREE MILES WEST OF Plymouth, near the Pittsburgh Ft Wayne and where the subscriber is ready at all times, during business hours, to do up Shaving, Hair cutting &c., NOW for one thousand dollars. For particulars and catching the rope, climbed hand over Ross county. A. G. ARMSTRONG. Plymouth Feb 3d 1859

Old Iron. I will pay one cent per pound for old iron, delivered at my Foundry in South Plymouth.

JOB WORK.

TATE ARE PREPARED TO EXECUTE Job Work of every description on the shortest possible notice and in as good style as anyother office in northern Indiana. Persons about having Job work done are invivited to call and examine our numerous specimens of

PLAIN AND FANCY PRINTING.

CARDS AND ENVELOPES

NOTICE

DR. T. A. BORTON,

Is hereby given that the undersigned will, at the signs of the Board of Commissioners of Marshall county, to be held on the first monday of June next, apply for license to retail spirituous and malt liquors in accordance with the corner of Gano, where he may be consulted during office hours. Decling two doors north of the may be consulted during office hours. Decling two doors north of the county, Indians.

NOTICE

Come, Jem, my lad, I said, thinking to take the fright off him, 'it's bad enough but it can be mended. Hitch up a bit and put your arm around the rod, may be it will steady you.'

Where are you? and where is this rod?' he asked in a very hollow voice, though he was looking straight at me, and the rod our soul, and the peculiar soil in which the total take the fright of take the fright off him, 'it's bad enough to take the fright of him, 'it's bad enough to take the fright off him, 'it's bad enough to take the fright off him, 'it's bad enough to take the fright off him, 'it's bad enough to take the fright off him, 'it's bad enough to take the fright off him, 'it's bad enough to ta

Cougle.

House, which became so popular with the public. hood, with longing eyes glancing down under his management, a few years ago, where he the flower-bordered vista of futurity, fondsteps, softly whispered, "For thee the > beyond the shadowy gloom brightly gleam ing away with him. the effulgent rays of Immortality." Faiendship's chain. Dark is the shadow ney, and, by close looking, I saw them bushy whiskers. thrown around us. A fountain of bitter- put somebody on a board, and carry him 'Is your master up!' demanded the visideath was borne back to thy many Mis-disposition shed o'er all around a genial the cradle, so thus were we left in total iso- of ducks, he has come to present me with.' in North eastern Ohio, we observed the ray of happiness, winning for thee, all un- lation for full twenty minutes. The increasing demand for Dr. Smith's services consciously, the hearts of many. Thine ing very sorry for my poor master, I was thick voice said, by your leave, and at the rendering it impossible for him to attend to the image hanging far up the azure heaven of startled by a wild laugh from Colly, who same moment Mr. Foley entered the bedthem that he can cheerfully recommend Dr. Brens- memory, shall ever rise and glimmer the began making cat calls, and velling as if room

Boone County, Mo., May 18th, 1859.

A Perilous Hour.

I was apprenticed to a decorative paintout. After some years of knocking about ATTORNEY ATLAW. I get tired of a maritime life, and having married and determined to stick to the shore, I got work with a builder whose peculiar line lay in creeting tall chimneys. Will give strict attention to all Legal business in- I had always a very cool head, and could stand on elevations that would make most He has also, in company with Dr W W CALK. men dizzy, and so I was soon a favorite hand with my master. We had an occahad sprung near the top of a very high al Farms for sale or exchange for other property. chimney, and Mr. Staming chose myself Feb 17 '59-12m6. JAMES O'BRIAN. and one James Colly to do it as the and one James Colly to do it, as the most daring of his men. About half a dozen through this trying time. Then he tried of us went that morning with a hand cart, Insurance Agent. containing the necessary ropes, blocks, the For Ætra of Hartford, Cash Assetts, $1700,000 kite, and a box or cradle. Having flown 420,000 the kite, and dropped its line aeross the For Peoria, Marine and fire Insurance Company, top of the chimney, we soon drew up a and he cowered down like a whipped dog, castle guard' Colly had only been married a fortnight; ing to him. TE HAVE just received, and are offering and as we stepped into the cradle, the men from her sister in Canada, and as there up?" for sale cheaper than any other establish- banteringly asked him if he hadn't a last dying speech to leave for his wife; and then ANTORNEYS AT LAW o for Summer ware. Don't fail to call before you and bid us be cool and stead), we were ed, though as the day was not named.

were to be drawn up.

did not expect we should have many spectators; but as we got higher, and the view opened under our feet, I saw that the Has refitted the same, and is now prepared to give streets were already thronged with starers. my hat to the people, he said snappishly that this was no time for such folly, and he thought I might be thinking of better tools, who, he dared say, desired no bec-L've Piymouth 430 rm L've Laporte 840 am ter fun than to see us meet with an acci-do Clark's 445 do do Plank Road 858 do dent.

I had come up in the best heart, think-935 do ing. indeed, nothing of the danger we in. Then having got him in, I scrambled in fast. The latter only intent on assaulting had given their consent, and all things night.' 10 12 do to the tep, and had nothing, as it seemed, for them to lower; and so we were got 10 20 do belonging to this world near to us but this down, he wrestling and fighting with me 649 do Ar. Plymouth 1059 do straining rope, I began to see the peril of S EDWARDS, Agent. the undertaking. What Colly thought of all the way.

were within a yard of the top projecting coping, and still they were winding away not slacking speed in the least! I guessed in a moment that they mistook our lowing ticket: height, and that with the great purchase of hand to the coping. Colly, too, sprang up and followed me. He, too, got up safe; of Ashland county. and still they went on winding up, winding up, till the rope sung again with the strain Franklin county.

there was upon it. Then it snapped, and cradle, hauling- Whitman, of Fairfield county. line, and the main rope with its block, fell down. Thus were we two poor men left in a most desperate situation.

Poor Colly was completely dazed with affright; and the moment he got upon the coping, which was only a foot and a half broad, he called out: 'Where can I pray? hear us if we pray to him sitting down.'

as if he was in a fit. His eyes were very ed. wild, and drawn into a squint, and he could or Merchants and others, on short notice. Call n't sit stendy, but swayed his body back-go near him; but then I remembered his Recorder of Bristol, is related by one of the last few months, we have marked on Know Nothing Society. We don't believe DEATH has hovered over a household new-wedded wife, and that taking him all the British press. DEATH has hovered over a household through, he was always a very decent band, and he, the noblest and best, hath sort of fellow, and I thought how I at Clonmell, he 'let into' the defendant in peculiar—something else. Here is on the goose.'—Louisville Journal. fallen a victim to the 'dark angel's' wing. should have liked him to have him done no measured terms. The individenal in the one that hangs over the door of a coun-While yet in the prime of blooming man- if I had been in his case, so I determined veighed against not being present, only try hotel in Ashtabula county: hood, with longing eyes glancing down to run abit of a risk in his favor. Of heard of the infectives. After Barrington, course I durst not get on my feet; but however, had got back to Dublin the deworking myself on by my hands, I got to fendant, a Tipperary man named Foly, lost Such a sign would be more appropriate for this city, some five weeks since, by Dr. will in future aid in superietending its affairs. The House has been entirely refitted and newly furn- ly hoping the realization of bright antici- him, and putting my arm around his no time in paying his compliments to the a saw mill! pations, a guardian angel ever keeping waist, and telling him as cheerily as I counsel. He rode all day and all night, At a prominent station on the Cleveland some sixty years of age had a cancer its departments. No pains or expense will be spaced to render it a first class Hotel. Travelers, ceaseless vigits o'er his wandering foot. could to keep cool, I got him with his arm and covered with sleet, arrived before Bar. and Pittsburg railroad, the following stop. which rendered it necessary to cut away > men walked after with a hat in his hand; the object of his jonrney. flowers of happiness, checks for awhile then I knew that somebody had been hurt their blooming beauty. We weep for with the falling cradle, and that it must be drops, when the sad intelligence of thy wore bats. I-learned afterward that our glad to see him. good a man and so kind a master should master, who was in bed, the purport of his We considered that the extremity of the is dawning upon us. We have been accusbe killed, that for a while they had never visit.

> > he was possessed. Then I knew, of course 'You know my business, sir,' said he to that he was gone mad.

flight of pigeons sweeping round at con- glass. er, but being of a bold, danger-loving siderably less heighth than we were. Then You do not mean to say that you would turn, I ran away to sea before my time was Colly-thank God! he was so dazed that murder me in bed,' exclaimed Daines, who he could not see me -- called my name three had as much honor as cool courage. that his sight might clear, and with a soon as you can.' ghastly grin, and chewing with his mouth 'Yes,' replied Daines, 'that you might skule' there! he began working himself toward me.

I worked away from him as noiselessly the blankets' as I could, with every hair of my head 'No,' replied the other, 'I pledge you State—the Garding of Hoosierdom.' It even, and hence is to Andalusian and standing on end. He followed me twice my word not to touch you till you are out consists of several beautiful lakes, six or Granadian scenery what Walter Scott and around that herrid coping, making most of bed.' REAL ESTATE AGENCY, sion to fasten a lightning-conductor which hideous noises, and then being come a second time to the rod, he got an idea in his muddled head that I was fallen over, for he never lost a sense of where he was all to get on his feet; but at the risk of my over and making himself comfortable, and Plymouth is in Indiana-up while they add on, as usual, many tonrush on certain death without one more ef- 'I have the honor of an Irish gentleman. inhabitants, besides the Postmaster—and come the hand-book, the guide-book, of fort; and I cried out for him to sit down, and may rest as safe as if I were under the is, on the whole, a capital place-being the old Moorish Granada. all trembling. I suppose it had been put The Tipperary salamander looked mar- vention. You can get there by going around into his head that I was a dead man speak. velously assonished at the presended slee- the railroad .-- Martinsville Bulletin.

> were parts we could not make out, I had 'No,' said Dains, 'I have the word of an Mr. Staming having shaken hands with us time-keeper to read it for me. It had a in bed, and I am sure I am not going to get drawn slowly up. It was known all over by another good providence, I happened get up again. In the mean time Mr. Foley, to have a bit of red lead pencil in my if you should want your breakfast, ring the down-Colly's gono mad;' this I shut in The morning paper will be here presently, my tobacco-box, and was fortunate enough but be sare and air it before reading, for to drop just at the feet of a couple of men there is nothing from which a man so quick who were standing by the engine-house ly catches cold as reading a damp journal,' door. Directly all was bustle to rescue and Daines affected to go to sleep. us They got the kite up again, and The Tipperary had fun in him as will and I watched it mounting slowly, slowly; as ferocity; could not resist the cunning of and when the slack twine fell between Col- the counsel, 'Get up Mr. Barrington, for ing to Russell. Geauga county, concluded things than how to amuse these gaping ly and myself, I took it in my hand and in bed, I have not the pluck to hunt so to 'jine fortunes' and get married. The could have kissed it. Poor Colly, with droll a heart. his teeth chattering, still fanc ed I was a The result was that less than an hour twentieth summer, and the blushing bride row what he could do to-day. The little spirit, and I did all I could to favor that afterwards, Dames and his intended muridea until they got another cradle up to us. derer were sitting down to a warm break. The respective 'daddys' and 'mammys' the remainder of that plum-pudding to-it, I den't know—he sat at the bottom of the cradie, ever looking out, though I told and then went to seavengering, for he says:

Columbus, yesterday, nominated the fol- his rulings were marked by the most rigo- when, broken hearted and throughly dis- self devoted and constant Charlotte Ange-

Trumbull county.

For Treasurer-Jacob Reinhardt, of

For Judge of Supreme Court-H. A. large proportion of the inhabitants of our were made one flesh.

linson, of Washington county. len, of Harrison county.

elements of ability and popularity. Where can I kneel and pray?' and so I said in the State, and when on the Supreme quitted without deliberation. very solemnly: 'Sit down, Jem; God will bench gave a dignity and character to it Judge Pettit's appearance is singularly develope them to the people.

EDWARDS HOUSE, To the Memory of Henrie J. fright; and self-preservation said: Don't An amusing story of Daines Barrington fright; and self-preservation said: Don't Recorder of Bristol, is related by one of this I knew he was gone blind with the How he avoided being Kil't.

round the the round. It had, however, rington's residence, in Harcourt street, ping place is heralded:

dark angel cometh, and folding thee close- and was so loose that it swayed with him, Throwing the bridle of his smoking sprung the stapling for five yards fown, Dublin. venient stable, where prompt attention will be ly in his icy clasp, will bear thee onward and I expected any minute to see him fall- horse overthe railing of the area, he announthrough gloomy darkness. Fear thou not, ing head and heels down, sud the rod tear- ced his arrival by a thundering knock at the door. Barrington's valet answered the the door; There was a great bustle down below; summons, and opening the street door be-Loved friend, farewell! How rudely people were rushing round the yard and held the apparition of the rough-coated, here.

W hath been sundered the golden links of some score of men at the foot of the chim- der his arm, and the sleet sticking to his

'No,' answered the man.

thee, Henrie; ah! bitter flowed the tear- poor Mr. Staming, as none of our men Mr. Foley-he'll know the name-will be ships thus: men were so taken up with sorrow that so The valet went up stairs and told his

Though thou wast comparatively a stran- a thought about us; and the people outside Then don't let Mr. Foley in for your life,' ger in our midst, thy gentle and amiable imaigned that we had come down with Barring.on, 'for it's not a hare nor a brace

The man was leaving the bed-room when While I was watching them below, feel- a rough wet coat pushed by him, while a

Barrington; 'I have made a journey to teach Even now I tremble when I think of you manners, and its not my purpose to rethat time; it was horrible to peer down the turn until I have broken every bone in your shaft, black and scoty and yawning, and body,' and at the same time he cut a figure scarcely less so to look outside and see a eight with his shillalah before the cheval times, and I sat fairly cringing in dread 'No,' replied the other, but get up as feil me the moment I put mysetf out of

'You won't.'

'Upon your honor?' 'Upon my honor.'

'That is enough, said Daines, turning State Editorial Convention of their own in upon the city, the walks he took, &c., own life, I could not let the poor fellow seeming as though he meant to fall asleep, north, and is a large city of fifteen hundred ances. Washington Irving thus had be-

That morning my wife had got a letter loa!' says Mr. Foley, arent you going to get scrap of uncovered paper at the bottom; up to have my bones broken. I will never pocket. I wrote on the paper, 'Get us bell; the best in the house is at your service.

Judge Pettit .-- A correspondent of the New York Post (Republican) writing from was to have been tied, a license was refused weeks since, happened to overhear the He was in a mad-house for some months Muskotah. K. T., under date of April 15. them, because the stony-hearted justice at voung gentleman thus address his comverted dry goods box, with an arm chair sleep.

that none of his successors have since judicial. His height is medium, but his The color of his face was of a transpa- preserved. He was nominated by accla- proportions are immense; so large, in fact, invalid as healthy weather. To make a mation, and should be unanimously elect- that he obliged to pull off his chair whenev- sick man think he is dying, all that is neer he rises from his seat. His smoothly cessary is to look half dead yourself .-The other candidates all possess popu- shaven countenance wears a smile of gra- Hope and despair are as catching as cutaor Merchants and others, on short notice. Call the Demoarat Office, over H. Pierce's Clothing ward and forward, so that I felt certain he lengthy campaign before them, time will baldness flows from his crown, between two feel sunshiny, especially in a sick room, Covington assessed and paid the damages accurate shores of hair, and discharges it and to look so too. 'Come, Jem, my lad,' I said, thinking Everything seems to have passed off self into the broad bay of his face. Gold tetst outline, complete a tout ensemble ant trip. Upon inquiry we found he had town, in opening the New York Mail, not

Bad Signs.

'Boarding an Logging.'

'Meals. at. all. hours'

'Pure tar and Sperts. of Turpin for. sail

Written in bold characters above the

'No cutting Up Aloud hear.' We put on our 'long face' there. Some poor fellow's goods were adver-'Then give him my compliments, and say tised for sale in one of the inland town

'Konsabels tail.'

'POST office.'

'Piesan Kakes an Oisters-Fride Wans' We saw the following somewhere:

'Missouri. House.' And at another place:

'grassarice and pro Duse store.' Once more and we shall quit:

Skule master wonted -- Enquire at Dees'k steps, and the glories of the Vega, - ade Nu. 5 of the present town ship.' We had a mind to stop and 'take up appointed a day and are going to hold a studied, the baicony out of which he looked capital of Marshall county-to hold a con-part of the State didn't know what kind of a hope of reaching the interior with more place Laporte is. Well, we always sup- certainty, has married the daughter of the posed they diln't. What a deplorable negro king of Bibe, in Upper Guinea .state of ignorance they must be in, to be Having by this step become General insure. Laporte, sir, comprises almost the chief of his father-in-law, he makes use of whole of Northern Indiana, sir. Ply mouth his newly acquired authority to facilitate claims the residue. If the editor of the Bulletin will just make his appearances in Plymouth, about the time of our Convention, we'll let him taste of the "goodies" -and show him the Postoffice .-- Laporte hopeful swain had not quite reached his told him he should never defer till to morwas not one year short of 'sweet sixteen.' -- urchin replied, 'Then, mother, let's eat seemed prosperous, But--

A Lover Digs His Own Grave. than at the destruction of the actual A short time since a young couple belong- bloom.

"The course of true love never did run amooth." le returning from a juvenile party at a On reaching Chardon, where the knot fashionable residence in Pittsfield, a few Russell had given formal notice that the panion in a voice of the tenderest solici-HAS moved his office on; door north of Pierce Clothing store, near the Democrat printin All persons owing me, whose accounts are due, are him he would do better to keep his eyes never have had the same clear head since commenced his judicial labors by holding the new calico.—Home dejected and des- Charlotte Angeline, you must not set a term of the District Court, during the paring, returned the swain. Life to him, your youthful affection on me, for I and past week, for Atchiton county. The of- would ne'er look bright again. When dark doomed to an early grave. Mother says Good Heaven! what was this? Here we Ohio Democratic State Tick- ficial course of his honorgives eminent sat- night closed o'er the sky, to the grave that I am troubled with the worms.' isfaction to all parties. His charge to the vard did he hie. There a grave both wide The listner involuntarily uttered an The Democratic State Convention at Grand Jury was luminous and effective; and deep he dug to contain his poor carcas 'ahem,' which interrupted the reply of the rous impatrtiality, and his manner while gusted with this wicked world, he should line. For Governor-Rufus P. Ranney, of on the bench, (which consisted of an in- lay him down and take his long, long

For Lieat, Governor -- W. H. Safford, of thereon,) was the perfection of dignified Whilst in the midst of his labors some suavity. The time of the court was most- one disturbed him, and unhappy grave dig-For Auditor of State-Wm. Bushnell, ly consumed by the trial of a fellow from ger rushed off frantically and hid himself in Leavenworth, for murder. The offense was Painesville for three whole days. U timacommitted last Christmas week in one of tely the flinty-hearted justice relented, the those abominable stews which shelter a legal consent was given and the twain metropolis, and the prejudice against the The 'boys' in Russels have completed friend to another, 'that we find editors that For Board of Public Works-Jas. Tom- prisoner in his own county was so violent what the desparing 'lovyer' began. The are bred to their business. that the venue was changed in order to ob- grave has been filled up, rounded, and For School Commissioner-Chas S Al- tain an impartial jury. The council on turfed, a stone placed at the foot, and a you not remarked how seldom the business both sides were miserably inefficient and decent head-board at the head, neatly in- is bread to the editor?" This is a strong ticket, and contains the frequently irritated the court to a display scribed with the name of the living deof that petulant egotism which is one of funct,' and the date at which he didn't die. last has the following curious item in rela-Judge Ranney is one of the first men its weakest points. The prisoner was ac. It forms a nice ornament for the Russell tion to Friday: burying ground .-- Cleaveland Herald.

A cheerful face is nearly as good for at

A friend of ours was congratulating himself upon having taken a very pleastripped and fell into a young lady's lap.

which case it is better to 'mizzle.'

A correspondent says that Gen. Cass While traveling from place to place in once made positive engagement to join the our note book quite a number of "signs" it. We con't thing think that the old

The N. Y. Tribune says.

'We yesterday saw the result of a remarkable surgical operation performed in Carnochan, Boone County, Ill. A man the entire upper lip. Having removed the cancer, Dr. Carnochan proceeded to make a new lip by cutting in each cheek a strip In a village store, in the region of pines, of the necessary width-of course leaving we found this spirited notice sticking on it attached at the end of the cheek where it belonged; then he dissected the strips underneath so as to render them loose and moveable; and then stretched them until the ends of the two met under the nose, door of a carpenter's shop, in another burg whole became healed, and when we saw where they were secured. In time the the patient yesterday, the new lip was perfect, even to the vermillion lining of the edge, while the scars of the incision in the cheek are scarcely perceptible.

WHAT IS EDUCATION? -- Wenderl Philip in a recent speech answers:--"It is not simply books. There is another idea that tomed to study only books. I believe ev-While the iron horse was taking a drink, ery observing man will agree with me, that or in other words was At water, somewhere the day is dawning when we are to study things not books only. I do not mean that we are to lay aside books. We are not to give up languages and history, and studies It was with some difficulty that we pass- of that class, but I think that the study of ed the saloon with this inviting notice: things is to be grafted upon these. God's works-the beautiful in objects—the curious and useful in science-the great relations betweeen the sciences."

THE FAME OF WASHINGTON IRVING IN Spain .-- James Brooks, of the New York Express, writing from the Alahambra. I write now under the shadow of the walls of the Alhambra. I mount but a few almost American by the spirit of the pen of our countryman, Irving, are before me. Washington Irving, quoting quaintly a Spanish priest's story, has peopled almost every hill and valley here," and hereabout Laporte is the banner county of the in all Granada, from Malaga to Cordova, seven or fourteen newspapers, eight milita- his poems and romances are to Highland ry companies, and-&c. It is a splendid life and story. The Spaniards are as county; and the Laporte editors, probably proud of him as we are. They show the knowing it to be a splendid county, have room in Alhambra where he stayed and

A PHILOSPHER MARRIES A NEGRESS .-Ladislaus Magsar, a Hungarian, well versed Bro. Story talks as if the people in his in the natural history of Brazil, in the > 23 Dr. Warren the author of Ten Thousand a Year, and other works of merit, in speaking of the fall of a beautiful roung woman, writes this fine sentiment: One grieves more to see a flower nipped in the bud by the stern hand of adversity.

AT A mother, admonishing her son,

A person following close behind a coup-

Fanny Fern says she once had a narrow escape from being a minister's wife, and tells how she would have acted in such a case. An exchange, in commenting upon the matter, says that if she had a narrower escape than the minister, then it was fearful to contemplate, indeed!

'How very seldom it happens,' said one 'Very well,' replied the other, 'and have

The Madison Courier of Monday

'On a Friday, Fry. Maxwell & Co., purchased forty odd tons of iron at Pittsburg. It was shipped on Friday on the Jacob Traber, which sunk at the wharf in Cincinnati on a Friday. The iron was insured in the Rising Sun Insurance Company on a Friday, and the iron was re-shipped and landed at Madison on a Friday.

Mr. Babcock, the Postmaster at Middle long since, found a paper without a wrapper. and on examining it, found it to be a Always give a kiss for a blow, unless California one, and done up inside was a Why is a kiss like scandal? Because the blow is given with a broomstick in nugget of gold. Who the paper belongs to, is still a mystery.